SUBMITTAL OF WILLIAM KUNTZ, III ON CLAIMS OBJECTIONS

Now comes William Kuntz, III who appears Pro Se and respectfully submits the following:

- 1) It was with some difficulty that I was able to file the proofs of claim.
I first misread the form and used the wrong case number, and then upon confirming that it was filed realized that I had calculated the wrong date for pre-petition interest as I understand it.
- 2) Upon correcting the interest sum, i then upon reviewing the claims docket on Epiq realized that i had used the numbers to the right of lehman commerical paper rather than to the left. upon information and belief, it was Lehman Commerical Paper that absconded with the cash escrow account in the New Jersey Ch 11 before Judge Winfield.
- 3) To my knowledge, the Debtor has only objected to 2 lines of claims at this point. While I have no objection to clearing up this confusion, I would ask that any supporting paperwork included with the each successive claim be carried forward to the surviving 3 claims. EX 1
- 4) Further, while the little box #5 was checked off for 11 USC 507 it appears that this claimant is not entitled to that kind of priority and would request that the 3 surviving claims be reclassified as unsecured.

While this does not resolve the 'constructive trust problem' it appears this reclassification is proper.

5) While it would be helpful for the Debtor's Counsel to admit at last that they in fact were Co-Counsel to Grand Union in New Jersey, I don't think they wish to be that candid and honest. If they were, then they would have to go to the next step and acknowledge the entire problem with the Cash Escrow. Of Course then, they would have to contemplate just sending the Cash to Albany as what should have been Unclaimed Funds, which in my view is what should have happened had the Debtor not been so Greedy.

<and as reflected in docket # 5895><attached> EX 2

Of Course then, if that were to happen I would perhaps lose my Standing.

Respectfully,

William Kuntz, III
